Writing Challenge Aim: Practise handwriting – Capital letters

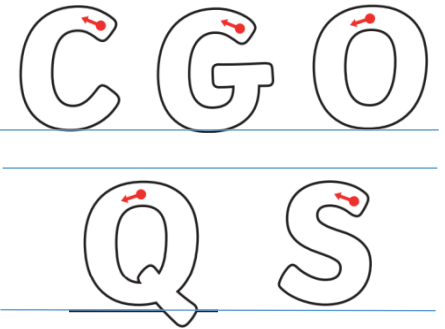

40mins

Starter activity: Get your hands and body ready for your best writing with a warm up: <https://teachhandwriting.co.uk/handwriting-warm-up-exercises.html>

Main activity: Practise writing C G O Q S. Start at the red dot. Write your letters on the line. Copy each letter 10 times. Can you identify which one you think is the best, and say what you like about it.

Extension: Play Capital Letters game. Capital letters are used for proper nouns, such as names for people or places. With a grownup can you research places in the world that begin with these C G O Q S. E.g cities or countries. Write them down. Which one has the most?

Wordwise

25mins

Wordwise wizards don't forget your daily dose of phonics.

★ You will find the daily Wordwise loom videos on the school website. This covers the YR2 phase 6 phonics lessons that are currently being taught in school. Press the penguin wizard to go there:

🌍 If you still need to practise phases 3-5 phonics taught in YR1 please visit this letters and sounds website: <https://lettersandsounds.org.uk/for-home/year-1>

Challenge time

30mins

I am a Geography expert and researcher:

Do you still remember the names of all the 7 continents and 5 oceans? Click the pictures to watch fun videos to sing-a-long to.

What is the climate?
Research what is the weather like in each continent.

Time for us: Rob Biddulph is a children's book author and illustrator. Join in his drawing demonstration. You need pencil, paper and coloured pencils. Do this with a partner. Do your own drawings but use the time to enjoy each others company. Using R-Time manners tell each other what you think they have done well and what they could work on next time. Press the owl.

15mins

Spellings Challenge

Practising everyday only takes a few minutes and is key to success. Have fun to keep it interesting. You could turn it into game, e.g write them on paper aeroplanes or paper snowballs and make a tally of which ones hit a target.
