Data protection

We will treat all information you provide in confidence and in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. We will hold it electronically, and keep it secure. We will use it for the purpose of helping our recruitment process and for payroll and administration purposes if your application is successful. If you are a Jobcentre Plus client, we will disclose information to them for performance and monitoring purposes.

We will share it with other officers involved in the recruitment process including managers, human resource officers and departmental support employees. For senior appointments, this could also include councillors and occasionally external assessors. We will not disclose it to other organisations or use it for any other purpose without your explicit consent.

If you are unsuccessful, we will usually destroy your application form and any other papers you have submitted six months after we have made the appointment. We will only hold information beyond six months with your consent.

Personal sensitive data

Under the Data Protection Act 1998, equality information such as ethnic origin, disability, sexuality, criminal convictions, is defined as personal sensitive data. The Council is required by law to monitor this information as part of recruitment practices. Only those personnel who require this information as part of their job will have access to it. We will not disclose it to anyone else without your explicit consent unless we have to do so by law.

Section three – to be filled in for jobs requiring a Disclosure and Barring Service Check (DBS)

Access to children and/or vulnerable adults

Warning. This post has substantial access to children and/or adults. If we offer you the job, you will need a DBS check. We will withdraw the offer if the check highlights something about you which we assess would make you unsuitable for the job. We take criminal records into account only when the conviction is relevant. Failing to disclose a conviction, caution, reprimand or final warning may result in your application being disqualified. If we discover evidence of this after your appointment, we could dismiss you without notice.

As this post has substantial access to children and/or adults, you must disclose if you have any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings which would not be filtered in line with current guidance. A conviction will not necessarily bar you from employment. The Council complies with the Disclosure and Barring Code of Practice which is available on www.gov.uk/dbs. If you have criminal convictions, read the criminal conviction filtering guidance at www.gov.uk/government/collections/dbs-filtering-guidance . Check the list of offences that will be filtered so you're informed about whether to disclose your criminal information. Do you have any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings which would not be filtered in line with current guidance? Section four - to be filled in for teaching jobs

Teacher applications

Warning. This job has substantial access to children and/or vulnerable adults. If we offer you the job, you will need a Criminal Records Bureau check. We will withdraw the offer if the check highlights something about you which we assess would make you unsuitable for the job. We take criminal records into account only when the conviction is relevant. Failing to disclose a conviction, caution or binding-over may result in your application being disqualified. If we discover evidence of this after your appointment, we could dismiss you without notice.
