

Let's Learn About Scotland

Where is Scotland?

Click the magnifying glass to zoom in!

What is Scotland like?

Scotland
cities.

Stirling

Stirling is the smallest city in Scotland.

are lots of shops and

Perth

Perth was Scotland's ancient capital and was the latest place to be classed as a city in Scotland.

from all over the world.

Glasgow

Can you name any
Glasgow is the largest city in Scotland.

The city of Inverness is near Loch Ness, the home of Scotland's very own Nessie, the Loch Ness Monster.

Inverness

Aberdeen

Aberdeen is known as the 'Granite City' as many of the older buildings are built from grey granite rock.

Dundee

Dundee is the oldest city in Scotland.

Edinburgh

Edinburgh is the capital city of Scotland.

What is Scotland like?

Sheep are used for meat and wool.

Chickens
meat

Many parts of Scotland are rural and the land is used for farming.

Cows are used for meat and milk.

Lots of different fruits and vegetables are grown on farms.

There are many different types of farms in Scotland that produce different food and drinks.

There are farms that keep animals.

Wheat, which is used in many cereals, is also grown in Scotland.

Click the circles to see different Scottish produce!

The Flag of Scotland

The flag of Scotland is called the St. Andrew's Cross or the Saltire.

The National Flower of Scotland

Thistles are weeds that can be found growing all over Scotland.

They are very prickly with a purple flower at the top.

The thistle is the national flower of Scotland.

The National Animal of Scotland

The unicorn is the national animal of Scotland, chosen for its great power.

Scottish National Dress

Scotland is famous for this pattern.

Do you know what it is called?

Tartan comes in many different colours.

This is Tartan!

Click the pattern to see the answer!

Scottish National Dress

Here is someone wearing Scotland's national dress.

They are wearing a tartan kilt.

People in Scotland don't wear kilts every day, however, kilts are often worn at weddings and other special celebrations.

Kilt

Famous Places in Scotland

Scotland has many famous places that people from all over the world like to visit.

Have you visited any of these places?

Loch Lomond

Loch Lomond is the largest loch in Scotland and famous for the beautiful scenery around it.

The Kelpies

The Kelpies are sculptures of two very large horse heads.

The Riverside Museum

The Riverside Museum is a museum of transport in Glasgow.

Famous Scottish People

Scotland has many talented and famous people who have gone on to do great things.

Robert Burns

What do you think he was famous for?

Laura Muir

What do you think she was famous for?

Click the pictures to reveal the answers

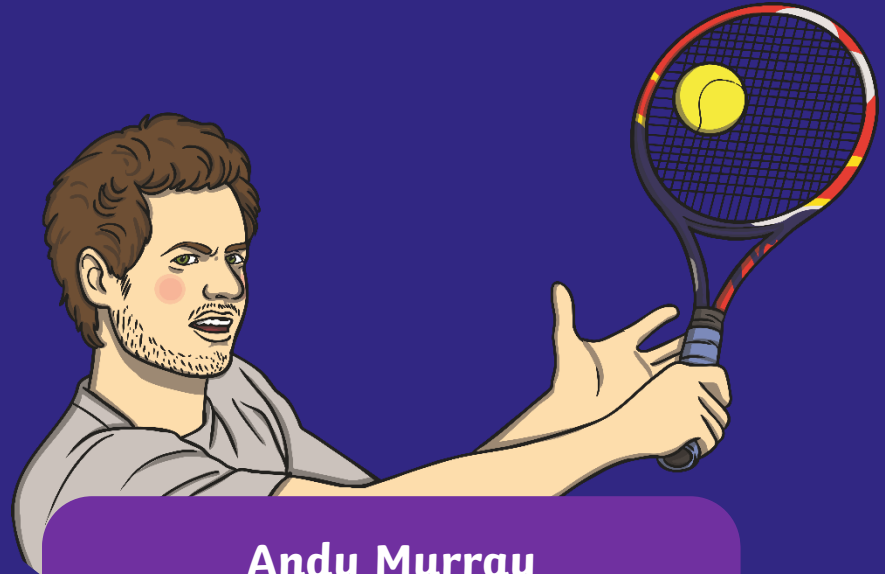

Famous Scottish People

Scotland has many talented and famous people who have went on to do great things.

John Logie Baird

What do you think he was famous for?

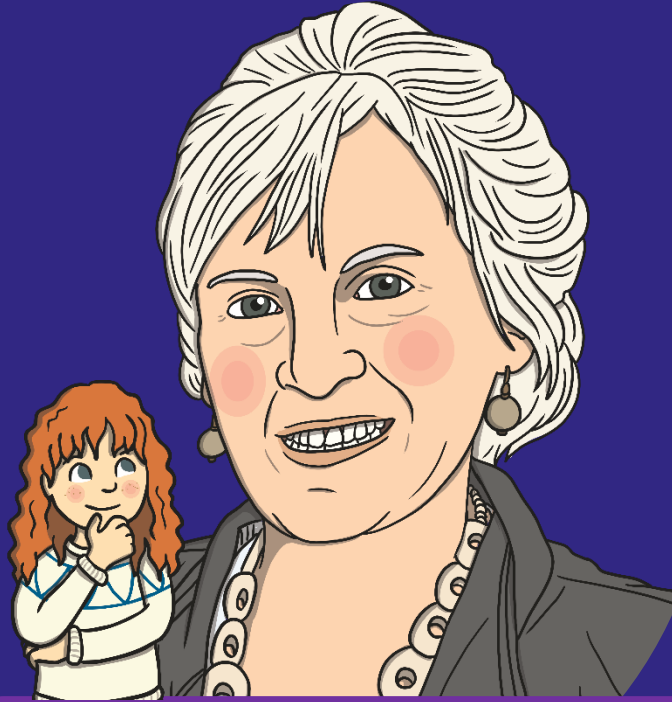

Andy Murray

What do you think he is famous for?

Click the pictures to reveal the answers

Famous Scottish People

Scotland has many talented and famous people who have went on to do great things.

Mairi Hedderwick

What do you think she is famous for?

Click the pictures to reveal the answers

